1. On February 9, 2014, NNAUSA received a special invitation for submission of a Position Paper (specific to the National Conference) from the Chairperson of the Abia State Technical Committee on the Nigerian Conference, Aba South.
2. On February 11, 2014, NNAUSA members (60 individuals whose numbers were listed on the Teleconference post-conference log) dialed in and deliberated on the content of said Position Paper. The deliberations were subsequently articulated paying close attention to the call's terms of reference.
3. On February 13, 2014, the NNAUSA Secretariat send the Position Paper to the Conference Chairperson, Elder Paul C Ananaba, SAN. The submission was immediately followed by a phone call in which our SAN assured NNAUSA that its position will be accorded due audience, and will form a part of the Committee's recommendations up to the Federal level.
4. On February 14, 2014, NNAUSA received a formal letter from the Chair of the Committee. In his words, "NNAUSA's paper which was presented by Barrister Onuoha, was highly commended for its content, value and relevance. On behalf of the Committee, I hereby convey our appreciation to NNAUSA leadership and members for this patriotic act of ensuring due representation of Ngwaland at such critical time. The Committee observed that you had limited time, yet you fulfilled your obligation."
5. The President, M. B. O. Eguzouwa and the National Executive Committee, on behalf of NNAUSA extend our appreciation to Elder Paul C. Ananaba, SAN and his team for reaching out to the umbrella organization of Ngwas in the USA and North America on this matter. Our thanks also go to NNAUSA members for their responsive participation in the affairs of our homeland.

Sincerely,

KingsleyMChigbu-
