NNAUSA DELEGATES LED BY THE PRESIDENT, MR. BONIFACE ONYEBUCHI EGUZOUWA TO GOVERNOR THEODORE A. ORJI, THE EXECUTIVE GOVERNOR OF ABIA STATE RETURNS TO THE UNITED STATES WITH STRONG COMMITMENT AND HOPE FOR AN NGWA GOVERNOR IN 2015, AND UNWEAVING COMMITMENT TOWARDS THE PROPOSED NGWA UNITY COMPLEX

The Ngwa National Association USA (NNAUSA) has secured strong assurance and commitment from the Governor of Abia State, Chief/Sir, T. A. Orji (Ochendo Global).

- 1) The Governor reassured NNAUSA that he will in deed, and consistent with his previous statements work very hard to see that Onye Ngwa will become the Governor of Abia State in 2015. The Governor reaffirmed his commitment for Ngwa Governor in 2015 on January 22, 2014 during NNAUSA Solidarity visit led by the NNAUSA President, Mr. B.O. Eguzouwa to Governor T.A. Orji at the Government House, Umuahia.
- 2) Addressing the governor, the Deputy Governor, the Chief of Staff to the Governor, Honorable Commissioners, Special and Senior Advisors, Members of the Press Core, and other top government officials at the Exco Chambers, Umuahia, Mr. Eguzouwa thanked the Governor for his legacy project and for working hard to restore security in Abia State. He noted that, a few years ago, Abia State was noted as being fraught with security challenges, but that, today through the work of the governor and God's intervention, the state is currently known as the safest state in the country and has won an award in that regard.

- 3) Mr. Eguzouwa also noted that, since the creation of Abia State, His Excellency, Governor T.A. Orji is the only governor that has voiced his support for Onye Ngwa to become the next governor of Abia State. He asked the Governor to hold onto his commitment, faith and resolve in seeing that such commitment becomes a reality in 2015. Mr. Eguzouwa further assured the Governor that he will never regret his support for an Ngwa governor as long as we live.
- 4) Mr. Eguzouwa informed the governor that NNAUSA is a partner in progress with the Abia State Government. He presented the proposed Ngwa Unity Complex to the Governor, and requested the Governor to allocate a land situate in Aba to NNAUSA for the building of the proposed Ngwa Unity Complex.
- 5) In his response, the Governor thanked the President and the entire NNAUSA members for the solidarity visit, and assured NNAUSA and Abians, that he is disposed to equity, and will live up to his promise, in making sure that Onye Ngwa will become the next governor of Abia State in 2015. He added that it is the right thing to do, as 7 other states are doing similar things to make sure that those from certain areas that have not governed their state have the opportunity to do so. Furthermore, the Governor also promised to allocate a sizeable parcel of land to NNAUSA for the building of the proposed Ngwa Unity Complex, adding that the benefits of the project as enumerated by Mr. Eguzouwa are commendable, and will help in enhancing the wellbeing of Abians. The Governor agreed, as requested by NNAUSA President, to added the Ngwa Unity Complex as one of his legacy projects.

- 6) Following the meeting with the Governor at Eco Chambers, the NNAUSA President and the National Council Chairman granted a Press Conference in which they called on all political parties to ensure that Onye Ngwa becomes their party flag bearer for the governorship position. They also called on all Ngwa people to support the Ngwa Unity Complex project.

MEETING WITH NGWA TRADITIONAL RULERS

- 7) On Saturday, January 25, 2014 at Aba, NNAUSA President/CEO, Mr. B.O. Eguzouwa addressed all Traditional Rulers from the 7 Local Governments in Ngwa Land, represented by the respective Chairman of Traditional Rulers from each Local Government. In his address, Mr. President thanked the Traditional Rulers for granting him audience within a short notice. He reiterated his visit to the Governor of Abia State for the Ngwa Governorship movement in 2015. He informed the Royal Fathers of the positive response he received from the Governor with regards to ensuring that an Ngwa person becomes governor in 2015.
- 8) He further asked the Royal Fathers to support the Ngwa Unity Complex and to work hard to unite all Ngwa daughters and sons who will be aspiring for the governorship position, to make sure that we do not allow others to tear us apart or to kill ourselves in the attempt to become governor. He stressed the need for Ngwas to support one another and to remain an entity in this effort.
